

The LECs operate an "essential facility", and should have to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale provisioning stimulates competition and benefits consumers and without it I would probably not be able to afford the Internet Service I am using to send this email with. Which would mean that many others would not be able to.

Is this the message you wish to send to America? Only the wealthy should have the luxury of correspondence with their government.